

Alabaster Cities

The celebrity shits and goes on TV about it. Our Hostess asks and is answered in jokes as always. But then "Let's get serious about a leading serious problem today." Deft-ly, the camera shows his actual, serious asshole and we're warned to act grown-up for once and we do.

And even the studio audience does.

What a success!
What a fuckin country!
Daily you see such things!
